Muhammad Maulana Fakhriy

About Me⁺

Basically,

I'm deeply obsessed with visuals. My motto is:
"I hate being an overthinker. It's awesome."

I work across photography, filmmaking, and design, serving as Director of Photography on 10+ short films with international festival selections in Spain, Italy, the UK, and Germany, while also producing multi-platform programs from concept to post-production.

I've worked as Director of Photography and Visual Supervisor on 10+ short films, several of which have been officially screened and selected internationally in Spain, Italy, the UK, and Germany. Storytelling through moving visuals is where I feel most alive.

Here are some of the visuals I've created.
